Life on Kelleys Island

Kelleys Island students and family members decorate the cemetery for the Memorial Day celebration. Thank You!

From the Mayor's Desk

The weather finally turned to our favor for the Safety Services Day at the Casino Dock. It was a very nice turn out with the Kelleys Island Police Department, Kelleys Island Volunteer Fire Department, and Kelleys Island EMS all participating. We also had Life Flight land on the Casino dock, and the United States Coast Guard made an appearance. Our Police Chief Shawn Craig provided hotdogs and hamburgers, grilled by the Kelleys Island officers. This was a contribution to the community, courtesy of the KIPD, for all to enjoy. We thank you for all the support. Great job by all!

At the May council meeting, there was some very important legislation passed. Two of our current levies, the fire levy and the road construction levy, will expire at the end of this year. The legislation will put both levies on the November ballot as renewals. As renewals, this will not raise our taxes. These are both very important levies that help our fire department purchase and maintain the equipment they need to keep us safe and to keep our road in good condition. Please support our levies this fall.

In the past issue of Kelleys Life, I explained that council had passed legislation to make the Clerk-Treasurers position an appointed position. There has been a petition for a referendum completed to place this issue on the November ballot giving our residents a chance to decide this issue as to whether it should be an elected or appointed position. There are steps to be completed before this can happen. It must be approved by Erie County Board of Elections, back to our clerk, then to the Secretary of State to determine the sufficiency of the referendum. Again, back to our clerk, and back to the Board of Elections. There can be no mistakes in order for us to see it on the ballot. We should know by the middle of August, if it will be on the ballot. Our clerk will then explain to the voters the language as to what a yes and no vote would mean. This issue I believe is important because it does give us the right to choose as to whether we want our Clerk-Treasurer elected by the people or appointed by the mayor with council approval.

We will have monthly Town Hall meetings, but I am still trying to nail down the dates. Stay Tuned!

That is it for now. I hope the rain slows down, our temperatures increase a little and we can start enjoying summer.

Mayor Ron Ehrbar

Landowners prepare for Homecoming Celebration

The theme for this years event and parade is "KI Roots"! No matter if your Kelleys Island roots go back to the 1800's or if you just got to our wonderful island on August 10, 2019 we want YOU in the parade. All entries: floats, golf carts, cars or other creative ideas MUST include on the right and left side of your entry the name of the family and/or organization, along with the first year that family or organization was on Kelleys Island. For families there may be multiple family names and years upon which they may have been to the island. The original year may have been the first time a family visited, moved here or otherwise stepped on the rock, so from this starting point you are free to take the theme to wherever it leads you. We will look for YOU and your "KI Roots" in the parade on Saturday, August 10 at 11 a.m.

Homecoming begins on Friday, August 9 at 5 p.m. at the Pavilion where the band Fuzzy Dice will entertain and snacks will be served. Saturday, August 10, festivities begin with the parade and gather at the Pavilion where Frank and Dean will head the music followed by the Fat City band.

Mark your calendar for a fun time. We'll miss you if you're not there!

Kelleys Island Police Department

First, I would like to thank everyone who came out to the Safety Service event held on Saturday, May 18th at the Casino dock and enjoyed the hamburgers, hotdogs & sausages that the new recruits served up. We threw the ones that had been blown off by the Life Flights entrance.....wink, wink, wink!!!! We also had a GREAT showing on Sunday, May 19th for our KIPD car wash. Thank You!!!!

KIPD car wash crew

Our next events will be: "Cops and Bobbers" at Portside Marina on August 4th from 12-2 pm. On August 11th at Memorial Park from 12-4 pm is our 4th Annual Pig Roast. Tickets will go on sale for the Pig Roast during the first week of June for $25.00. Hurry and get them before they run out. Last year we sold out 200 in the first month.

On May 14th "Dundee" & I were again certified through Ohio Peace Officer Training Commission for our 3rd year as Kelleys Island P.D.'s K-9 Unit for Tracking, Article Searches, Marijuana, Cocaine, Heroin, Meth, and their derivatives, Criminal Apprehension, Canine Control & Canine Searches. So, stop by the station and give "Dundee" a high five. This certification was assisted by Sgt. Scott Holmes of Vermilion P.D. and Mike Watkins of Watkins K-9.

Also, don't forget about KIPD's take back program that collects old and unwanted prescription drugs. We will be adding something new for Kelleys Island residents. Drug disposal pouches which will allow you to safely discard your old and unused drugs by simply putting your pills into the pouch add water, seal, and throw the pouch away in the garbage. The water reacts with chemicals in the pouch to nullify any active ingredients in your medicine. So come and drop your medication off 24/7 or come and get these new pouches to dispose yourself.

On a final note, several complaints have come up this past month. Some of the complaints are subject's excessive speed, running stop signs, reckless operation, leaving the scene of accidents, driving intoxicated, and driving under suspension. Some minor offenses are grass clippings on the roadway, dog tags and dogs at large. The recent dog complaints have been due to island residents that have been attacked by loose dogs.

With the complaints from above I will not allow the safety or security of Kelleys Island residents to be effected. These laws and others will be enforced. So please, we all can still have fun and enjoy the summer. Slow down and pay attention, the island is already starting to get busy. Respectfully, Chief Shawn M. Craig

Quote of the Month:

"People are illogical, unreasonable, and self-centered. Love them anyway. If you do good, people will accuse you of selfish ulterior motives. Do good anyway.

If you are successful, you will win false friends and true enemies. Succeed anyway.

The good you do today will be forgotten tomorrow. Do good anyway.

Honesty and frankness make you vulnerable. Be honest and frank anyway.

The biggest men and women with the biggest ideas can be shot down by the smallest men and women with the smallest minds. Think big anyway.

People favor underdogs but follow only top dogs. Fight for a few underdogs anyway.

What you spend years building may be destroyed overnight. Build anyway.

People really need help but may attack you if you do help them. Help people anyway.

Give the world the best you have and you'll get kicked in the teeth. Give the world the best you have anyway."

News from the Kelleys Island Historical Association

Leslie Korenko

Our first open weekend was a huge success. We want to thank the Island Market, State Park and Kelleys Island Chamber of Commerce for passing out info on our Free Museum Day as we celebrated International Museum Day along with other Erie County history museums. In all, over 120 people signed in and a few more didn't. Everyone who came in got a free coffee mug and their picture taken. Those 30 photos are now on our Facebook page and on our website. So many smiles, compliments and comments like "Wow, I didn't know Kelleys Island had such an interesting history." Well, we knew, and we love sharing it with visitors.

This year we have two exhibits – the history of the Kelleys Island Landowners Association. Its roots go back to the fight with the state which had planned on taking over most of the island and turning it into a State Park Resort. There were plans for a golf course, an Indian village, a lodge and other amenities. A stalwart group of islanders banded together and on August 31, 1974, 300 people in 50 decorated watercraft carrying protest signs and smoke bombs invaded Browns Marina near Lakeside. The invasion went viral. This was the Kelleys Island Navy. Our thanks to Janet Killam for creating this display. Our other display expands on our smaller one about commercial fishing. Teri Betzenheimer-Behrends gathered many artifacts, documents and photos to tell the history of this important industry here on the Island.

Don't forget to get your tickets for this wonderful electric GEM car. Sure it is gently used, a 2002 model with only 245 miles on it, but on the other hand, it could be yours if you purchase a $20 ticket. Our thanks to Jack and Mary Ellen Thinnies for donating this cart for the raffle. Can't get to the museum to get your ticket? Order online on our website: www.KelleysIslandHistorical.com

EMS News

EMS Safety Team

The wind was blowing as the waves crashed along the shoreline, but even that did not stop dedicated islanders from attending the 15th Annual Spaghetti Dinner fund raiser, held at Peepers. Many thanks to Jason Hemminger and Gennifer Gamble, Peepers, plus their very talented kitchen staff for an excellent dinner. Thank you to the Island Market for their generous donations. Many compliments were heard, as empty plates returned to the kitchen! Thank you to everyone who braved the elements to attend. It is always nice to see those who have returned in the Spring.

Dr. Krebs, Jason and Heidi from Mercy Life Flight came to Kelleys Island to work with the volunteers on the skills required to provide quality patient care in the busy summer months. After lunch, their assessment skills were put to the test in several scenarios. Team work is promoted during these sessions. The second scenario had the squad responding to the Portside Dock area, where the "patient" was assessed, treated, then transported to the airport to await Life Flight. The Life Flight crew touched down and were given a report on the patient prior to loading the patient into the helicopter for transport. Many compliments were given to the volunteers for their ability to work together as a cohesive team while providing care for an injured patient.

Despite the threat of more inclement weather, Safety Forces Day went off without any problems. No flooded docks or rain. KIPD had the first cook-out, EMS were on hand to provide tours of the ambulance to kids of all ages, and the Fire Department demonstrated setting up a landing zone for the helicopter. The U.S. Coast Guard docked, providing a tour of their vessel. Questions about the Safety Forces available to the island residents and visitors were answered for adults and children alike.

Kelleys Island Make-A-Wish – 25 Years

Back in 1995 Cindra Mielke and I (Jeni Hammond), with 3 other friends, decided it would be fun to swim from Marblehead to the Casino Dock on Kelleys Island. The girls accomplished this in less than two hours (the boys in 2 ½) on a beautiful, flat lake. This has been the only time we swam on a beautiful calm lake. The very next week, we decided we had so much fun, Cindra & I swam from Put-in-Bay to West Bay Inn on Kelleys Island. This swim was not as easy, one of our accompanying boats broke down and we left him to float on his own and we swam on. After that second swim, we made the decision that we wanted to make this an annual swim to help benefit children who were are not as healthy as our own.

Fast forward 25 years. We are still swimming strong. This year we will be swimming from the Coast Guard station on Marblehead to Portside Marina on Kelleys Island. It's hard to believe these years have gone by so fast. Last year, we donated $34,500.00, granting over 4 wishes. We have made many friends who have helped us along the way, by donating their time, gifts and or money. We could never have done any of this without the people who have supported us. For this we are truly grateful.

Golf Cart Poker Run, which started in 2008, will be held Saturday, August 3rd. Registration will begin at 10:00am at Dockers Restaurant. $10 per hand, no limit on how many hands you can play. This is one of the largest events held on Kelleys Island all year long.

Cindra and I plan on arriving at Portside Marina between 11:30-12 noon on Sunday, August 4th. Then the party will start at Dockers. Come celebrate and meet our children from Oak Harbor, Kennedy and Carson, sister and brother, along with all the rest of our wish children and families, past and present.

Our Wish Children for this year are:

Kennedy, 9 (will be 10 in July)
Her Wish: To go to Jamaica!
Illness: Cystic Fibrosis
She loves Carrie Underwood, Soccer and Chili's!

Carson, 11
His Wish: To watch his favorite NFL team play (we cannot currently disclose the team's name)
Illness: Cystic Fibrosis

He loves Drake, Football and Red Lobster!

Thank you for supporting us and these wonderful children. See you on the 3rd.

Love from both of us!

Kelleys Island Brewery News

Hi friends,

Another month down at the KIB! We have been busy with our opening events and getting ready to have Jeremiah and Andrea take the helm of "Sunset Tour 2019", in so many ways.

This year's blessing of the brewery was amazing, along with our guests, the next weekend brought in our Derby Day and our Star Wars Event. It was so awesome to see people dressed up from all over.

People are talking about the weather and the lake levels like never before. Earth Day was significant in so many ways this year, and so much of the shore is no more. But, one thing we know is that change happens, and when the ferries run, people come to visit and they like beer.

We are glad to have families of beer lovers from all over the world visit us. This year we have a returning favorite, The Summer Haze. It will be out Memorial Day Weekend with this year's first Anniversary. We are hoping for some hot summer days where we have to have a Shandiversary and some homemade Chicken Salad.

Our breakfasts are continuing to make people's mornings a little better, and we have been told that our homemade Bloody Mary's are quite delicious.

This month begins our rotating Thursday and Sundays. We will be hosting two clubs: Dance club on Thursdays and Recipe Club on Sundays. A dance academy from Toledo will be coming to teach us different styles of dance. We also have some locals that will be performing for us in various ways this season. The recipe club will be supported by our local guest chefs, who come and bring their favorite dish to share. We will pass out recipe cards and talk a little about foods, maybe inspire each other in the recipe department and leave the weekend with some fresh ideas for some fresh items. Sundays at 2 PM....

Don't forget YOGART this season. We have three dates with Shereena and Darcy. Artist and Yoga friend from Huron: June 16, June 20, and June 23 are the dates for this month. Check out Facebook events for the rest of the season.

Cheers,
Patti, Doug, Jay, Petey
and the Crew

Enjoy patio dining with a spectacular view of the lake!

Birds of Feather Flock Together

Barb Zeller

An increasingly popular activity on Kelleys Island, in both the spring and the fall, is to visit the bird banding stations at Long Point, the Scheele Preserve, and the North Pond of Kelleys Island State Park. Long Point visitors can marvel at the rich variety of songbird passerine species while night time visitors at the Scheele Preserve and the North Pond are enchanted by the Northern Saw-whet and Eastern Screech Owls. This truly unique opportunity is the result of a 23-year supportive relationship between the Kelleys Island Audubon Club (KIAC) and Master Bird Bander, Tom Bartlett, along with his wife, Paula. Since 1996, the Bartlett's have returned to Kelleys Island to study the songbirds and owls of the island by collecting migratory data via their banding stations as well as conducting monthly surveys of the bird populations on the island throughout the year. Here are some interesting facts and figures related to their study:

- 15,011 individuals and 118 species have been banded on Kelleys Island since the study began
- 2018 was a record year both in people and birds with 1804 visitors at the stations and 2119 individual birds representing 87 species banded
- The American Goldfinch is the most frequently banded bird over the entire course of the study while the Golden-crowned Kinglet was the most frequent in 2018.
- One new species was banded spring 2018 (Nelson's Sparrow) and 2 new species were banded fall 2018

(Whip-poor-will and Grasshopper Sparrow)

• A record number of Northern Saw-Whet Owls (156) were banded in 2018 along with 4 Eastern Screech Owls over the course of 38 nights. Many of the owls appeared to be staying on Kelleys Island for much of the fall and into the winter.

• The 6th Annual KI Owl Festival was held the weekend of Nov 2-4 and was the most successful one to date with 345 visitors attending various events of the festival and banding of 21 Northern Saw-Whet Owls and 2 Eastern Screech Owls.

• The 15,000th bird banded on Kelleys Island was a Northern Saw-Whet Owl on December 9. Tom's 85,000th individual bird banded since he started banding in 1971 was also banded on Kelleys Island, a Northern Saw-Whet Owl on November 17.

The Kelleys Island Audubon Club is happy to help support Tom and Paula in their scientific efforts on behalf of the feathered residents and visitors to Kelleys Island. Other supporters included the Cleveland Museum of Natural History, the Morse Farms Trust and Morse family, the Kelleys Island School, as well as other individuals and businesses. Check out the KIAC calendar of events on our website <https://www.kelleysislandnature.com/> or our Bird Kelleys Island Facebook page for 2019 banding dates and come out and join the club and the Bartlett's at the stations. You will be in for a real treat!

Chamber of Commerce: June Update

Jordan Killam

A simple question popped into my head recently: How does one 'island'? Yes, I'm aware that "island" technically isn't a verb, but to us, it definitely is. I'm talking about that special quality we all have - knowing what it means to be prepared and the resources that are available to us as islanders. Many visitors, however, do not share this quality, due to a couple of reasons:

1. They don't conduct any research prior to their visit

2. We aren't doing a good enough job when it comes to sharing information about how to experience the island in an efficient way

Reason #1 is not as easy to fix, but the Kelleys Island Chamber of Commerce & Visitors Bureau can try its darndest to address #2. The question remains: how do we tell a bunch of people how they can better experience our island? Our solution is to ensure that pertinent island information is dispensed via social media and on our website.

But how do people know what to do if they don't know where to look? That's where a robust advertising campaign comes in. This year, we plan to invest more in our social media advertising efforts, namely putting some money into boosting our event posts and creating video content. We have already seen such success with our Facebook page, as we post 365 days a year, often multiple times a day. The Chamber will be allocating some of our advertising budget to building ads specifically for this platform, some of them with a "How To" or informational focus to engender a more informed island visitor.

Spring Forward into Summer

May, as is often the case, was cold and rainy, but also busy! We kicked off the month with a raucous and well-attended Derby Day and Cinco de Mayo, followed by the EMS Spaghetti Dinner, Safety Forces Day, KIPD Meet & Greet Cookout, Free Museum Day, The KILA Welcome Back Potluck, and finished out with the KIPD Car Wash and Nest with the Birds. We had 5 nor'easters in as many weeks, but that didn't stop people from coming to visit us!

June will herald the arrival of some really exciting new events like the island-wide Maritime Weekend (June 21-23) and the Summer Solstice Soiree, which will be held at the Charles Herndon Galleries and Sculpture Garden (June 22). The Soiree invites you to ring in the longest day of the year in a beautiful waterfront setting. Stop by for food (the "Art of the Charcuterie" by the Salami Squad from Columbus, Ohio), drinks, live entertainment, and of course breath-taking and thought-provoking outdoor art.

Maritime Weekend will honor the 1978 decision to keep Kelleys Island a place for families, vacations, and residents instead of turning it into parkland, as was the wish of Ohio's Governor at the time. To protest this decision, a small fleet of islanders "stormed" the mainland in protest, calling themselves the Kelleys Island Navy and received national media attention. This event also culminated in the formation of the Kelleys Island Landowners Association (KILA). Maritime Weekend will include many events at businesses all over the island.

The Parsonage Resale Shop

Jodi Smith

Welcome to the 2019 season at the Parsonage House Resale Shop. We are located on Division Street next to the Old Stone Church. We are part of the Kelleys Island Historical Association Museum Campus. Our mission is to provide a service to the island community as a place to donate their unwanted but useful items, and a place to shop for useful and fun items or gifts, without leaving the community of Kelleys Island. The added benefit of the Resale Shop is the opportunity for tourists and community members to visit the Historical Parsonage House. The home was built in 1888 to fill the need for a residence for the Parson serving the German Reformed Church next door. Around 1919, the population of the church became too small to support a Parson. At that time, the Betzenheimer Family of Alexander Geo and his wife Emma, rented the home and raised their five children in the three bedroom home, without indoor plumbing or modern heating and cooling systems. The family took care of the Church and home grounds, maintaining the flower gardens and the yard. The last Betzenheimer to live in the home was Florence "Sis" McKillips. She was one of the five children raised in the home. She raised her two daughters in the home. Sis left the home in 2010 and sadly passed in 2015. We welcome you to visit The Parsonage House Resale Shop and find your piece of island history within the walls of this historic property!

We are open during the season from 12-4 or when the sign "says" OPEN. The Volunteers who operate The Parsonage House Resale Shop and historic home site want to thank you for your donations. However, do not leave donations on the porch or steps of the home or on the grounds of the museum. There are signs on the doors giving you options for donating:

1. Call one of the names on the sign and we will meet you to go through your things with you. We cannot accept everything, and we have to pay to have them hauled away.

2. Please, no large, old electronic items: TVs, VCR, Computers, ect.

3. Clean items before you bring them to us. We do not have any water in the house to clean items. ## Island Adventours News

Dawn Soldner

Hi Everyone, I hope you are enjoying some of the beautiful outdoors here on Kelleys Island or wherever you are. We certainly had a wet spring, which produced plenty of wild flowers and the ramps were plentiful. Many islanders were out foraging through the woods looking for more mushrooms as usual; and the birding has been just incredible this year. Rain or shine Kelleys Island is always an amazing place to experience nature. I am looking forward to some warmer and drier weather nonetheless, and hope to see you out and enjoying our island soon. Island Adventours has a busy season planned, and some new exciting things to share.

First of all, we are now offering online booking through Airbnb Experiences. You can still book directly by phone at 419 708-4228 (it's a little cheaper / cash and check payments), and now you can also book by going to www.Airbnb.com/experiences Search Kelleys Island, you can view our tours, book, and also pay with credit/debit. If you do not find the tour you had in mind or the times, please contact me as we often can be flexible with times and days. However you choose to book is great! Call Dawn for any questions. Remember "islanders" are always 50% off, this discount is not available on line.

We have news for the bicycle enthusiasts! Partnering together this year, Island Adventours, The Caddy Shack, and BrewDog Brewery are hosting a group Island Trails Bike Ride, for everyone interested, on June 15th, at 11am. You can even join the KI Chapter of the Brewdog "Chaingang" (cycling group)! Meet at the Island House @11, where light snacks will be provided, from there we will head out to some of our best off-road bicycling trails. Bret will take the more advanced riders on a long and rigorous ride. I will take the other riders for a little shorter yet adventurous ride. Following the ride, BrewDog Brewery will be hosting a tap takeover at the The Caddy Shack's Buckeye Bar featuring their beers and the afternoon will also feature Bret's barbeque. It should be super fun, we are eager to show off the great trails we have on the island! The riding event is free. Bring your own gear and water. Island Adventours will have a limited number of all-terrain bike rentals available for the ride, by reservation only. We are also offering two Basic Kayaking Skills, Level 1 classes, this summer. This is a great chance for you and your family to learn the fun skill of kayaking in a safe environment. This one day course is taught by an American Canoe Association(ACA) trained instructor and the course curriculum is developed by the ACA the leading expert in canoe and kayak safety. Participants receive instruction on equipment, as well as effective paddling techniques. Rescue and Safety is included in the course and also trip planning. Class dates are July 15, and Aug 9 & 10 (2 partial days). Course completers have reported "feeling confident and safer on the water". Minors must be accompanied by an adult. Course fee $45. Equipment rental $15 if needed. Limited enrollment.

Mark your calendar for the annual Kelleys Island Kayak Poker Paddle on September 14th, 2019. In partnership with the Kelleys Island Brew Pub, we will be co-hosting this event this year. Look for details to follow but we will be paddling for fun, and a cause again this year as our proceeds are being donated to help protect the waters of Lake Erie.

Jack Wade at the Armstrong, Texas post office

I headed south for another winter in Orange, Texas with my fiancée Carol. Carol left Kelleys Island in October to assist her elderly father.

I worked until the middle of December and headed to Athens, Tennessee to see my niece and her husband. The weather was considerably better there so, I spent a few days as a tourist.

We went to "The Lost Sea" a few miles from Athens at Sweetwater, Tennessee. The Lost Sea is the largest underground lake in the U.S. It is part of the Craighead Cavern System. The caves were first used centuries ago by the Cherokee Nation. Some tiny openings expand to large rooms hundreds of feet wide and over a mile long. The Cherokee tribes held "Councils" in the caverns. Arrowheads, jewelry, pottery, weapons, and other artifacts have been found a mile from the entrance in the caves. Occupants that used the caves before the native Americans include the Giant Pleistocene Jaguar during an Ice Age. Museums have jaguar remains found far into the caves. They probably were lost in the dark and one fell in a crevice where it remains were found. There are carbon deposits left by torches and fires used by the Cherokee and settlers for heat and light. There is a constant temperature of 58 degrees F year round in the total darkness in the caves. The Confederate Army mined saltpeter (potassium nitrate) in the cave to manufacture gun powder during the Civil War. The mining equipment used in the 1860's remains in the cave. A Union spy located the cave and was captured putting explosives in the cave to destroy it. He was taken to a tree near the entrance and shot.

In 1905 a 13 year old boy, Ben Sands, explored the cave and was the first person known to find the lake (its only 300 feet below ground level) but over a half a mile from the entrance. The only problem was no one believed him. There was a drought that lowered the lake level. Normal water levels flood some of the cave system making it impossible to enter that far. There was heavy rain shortly after Ben found the lake flooding the caves. Ben left marks and torches along his path and described rocks and mineral deposits along his trail. He threw mud balls as far as he could and he heard them splash, over a hundred feet away in the main cavern.

Poor Ben was called a liar for decades. Then there was a dry period in the 1970s. The invention of scuba diving equipment allowed divers to follow his path and prove that, the then 80 year old man, did discover a large underground lake.

Divers used sonar to measure the lake. It is over 4 1/2 acres. It leads to another lake that is over 13 acres. Divers are not allowed to enter that chamber because it is unstable. Divers using the sonar were almost crushed when part of the roof collapsed.

We had the opportunity to take a glass bottom boat tour of the lake. Since the caves are too narrow for regular boats so, the boats were built in halves and carried to the lake and welded together to be used by tourists.

Rainbow trout are stocked in the lake. The fish are fed dog food since there is no natural food in the cave. Their young become albinos after a few generations since they do not need normal rainbow pigment in the darkness.

The boats are powered by small electric trolling motors that are recharged by electric power lines installed in the cave. The power lines are used for electric lights and to power tools to maintain the cave fixtures.

After a couple of days I drove to Texas for Christmas. The weather was very cold and wet, relative to normal winter weather for the area.

When Ohio had -20 degrees we had 30 degrees and frost. Some days it did not get out of the 40s. Normal temperatures would have been 60-70 degrees.

We headed south in February to the Rio Grande River Valley where it was in the 70's and 80's. Normal temperatures there would be 80's and 90's.

We took a trip to Mission, Texas to the Riverside Club Restaurant. It is a great place to eat and watch the traffic on the Rio Grande River. There are,

American and Mexican, pleasure boats, bass fishing boats, jet skis, Border Patrol boats, and pontoon boats cruising up and down the river during the day.

At night, coyotes lead thousands of people across the river (overwhelming our nation's border patrol). At night it can be very dangerous. The Mexican Federal government has no control of their own territory. Murder is common. Cartel gun battles are not unusual and they have killed and injured people with stray bullets (they have struck people on the U.S. side of the border since, it is only a few hundred feet away from Mexico).

Our government is attempting to preserve the rule of law for the safety of everyone in the area. Therefore, a border wall is being built a few hundred feet north of the restaurant by a river flood control levee. The employees will have a gate they can use ID cards to enter and leave the property so that the business can remain open and protected by law enforcement since it is in Texas but will be on the south side of the wall.

We took a river cruise from the Riverside club for 10 miles along the border in a 55 feet custom built pontoon boat. The sightseeing boat can carry 49 passengers. On the tour passengers can see debris along the U.S. bank of the river left by the hundreds of people swimming across the border every night. They drop rafts, inflatable boats and anything that floats along the bank or in the water. There are paths through the weeds from people crawling up the banks and running into the sugar cane and other fields at night. They are leaving a trail of clothes and trash creating an ecological disaster.

We saw many species of birds, turtles, and other animals in the river and on the banks. It is sad to see the damage these individuals do as they violate our country's laws. Many smuggle contraband (drugs, weapons, children and women for the sex trade, and anything that will make them a profit) across the border. I talked to some ICE employees and learned a great deal about the dangers to law enforcement officers along this part of the border.

We went to Mexico a couple of times that week to shop. The Mexican shop employees go out of their way to get you to spend money at their shop. Because there are so many shops, dental clinics, pharmacies, cosmetic surgery clinics, and other medical clinics in border towns, the competition for tourists is immense.

It is always a relief to cross back to the US away from the cartels to safety. We stopped at the Armstrong, Texas post office for photos on our way home. The U.S. Post Office is located in cattle country where there is nothing as far as you can see except cactus and scrubs.

We never did find a town there, only some ranches. We headed north and had several interesting good times including having CRAWL FISH (cray fish) for Mardi Gras at Bubba Gumps Shrimp Shop at the pier on Galveston Island. We stopped at Crystal Beach where there was a constant 30 MPH wind and waves that made us think we were back on Kelley's Island.

Carol decided that we needed an RV (now instead of a couple of years from now) so, we bought a large Sun Voyager. This requires an inspection by the Ohio DMV to change the Texas title to an Ohio title.

Then Carol wanted to adopt. So we adopted two little bundles of joy, Angel and Grace. Now we get to transport a large RV with two little K-9s to their new home in Ohio.

This has been a very interesting winter.

Delores Ann Cole

of Amherst, Ohio, gained her wings and left her earthly bindings on May 5, 2019, during the peak of spring songbird migration. She is now soaring with the birds she loved and worked so hard for. She was born March 31, 1948 in Cleveland, Ohio, to John and Rita Ann (Tomcufcik) Kolinovsky who preceded her in death. She is survived by her three siblings, Joanne, Marianne, and John Kolinovsky. She was once married to Michael J. Cole and they divorced. In 2013, Delores met the love of her life, Ray Stewart, and they shared six beautiful years together, volunteering, traveling, and enjoying the natural world. Following successful careers with Stouffer Hotels, Marriott Hotels, Cole National, and KeyBank, she retired in December 2012 but slowing down was definitely not part of the equation. Delores was an organizational genius whose post-retirement volunteer work had an enormous impact on natural resource conservation in Ohio. Delores loved birds and birding, and she contributed countless hours of her time and expertise to dozens of bird- and nature-focused nonprofits, including Kirtland Bird Club, Kelleys Island Audubon, Black Swamp Bird Observatory, Ohio Wetlands Association, Ohio Natural Areas and Preserves Association, Ohio Invasive Plant Council, and Ohio Prescribed Fire Council, to name a few. She was instrumental in the success of Black Swamp's Ohio Young Birders Club and the internationally recognized Biggest Week In American Birding. Although she shunned the spotlight and never cared about getting credit, she received numerous awards and accolades for her volunteer work. Delores leaves behind an immense legacy of giving that is impossible to measure. In addition to her passion for birds and the natural world, Delores was a talented artist, enjoyed cooking and eating Mexican food, and loved traveling. She will be deeply missed and fondly remembered. There are no formal services planned at this time. A celebration of her life will be held this summer. Memorials can be made to Ohio Wetlands Association or Black Swamp Bird Observatory's Ohio Young Birders Club. "We abuse land because we see it as a commodity belonging to us. When we see land as a community to which we belong, we may begin to use it with love and respect." Aldo Leopold The Hempel Funeral Home is honored to serve the Delores Ann Cole family and has made available for the community's convenience an on-line register book as well as additional information to help facilitate expressions of compassion. ## PFDs for Dogs

It's now common to see dogs of all breeds on boats and around the water outfitted with a specially designed canine flotation vest. The choices on the market today for dogs are similar in many ways to the options we have for people. They come in a variety of colors, have varying warmth factors, and offer different amounts of flotation.

Buying a flotation device for a dog is a lot like buying one for a human: The main concern should be getting a device that properly fits your dog.

Make sure the flotation device has the characteristics your dog needs, like added warmth from neoprene if water temperature requires it. Most have a gripping handle for lifting the dog back into the boat. Make sure you know the weight limits of the device.

You should consider taking your dog with you to the store so you can fit the device before buying, but be sure to call ahead to make sure that's okay.

A general internet search of "dog PFD" will locate a slew of options when it comes to flotation devices for your dog, including retailers, manufacturers, as well as numerous blogs about dogs (where you may find someone with the same type of dog as you). BoatUS has some good information on testing different dog flotation devices.

Historical Society Drawing for Brunch and Cruise

Catawba Island, OH – Catawba Island Historical Society members offered chance to win CIC brunch and cruise on yacht Gemini.

The Catawba Island Historical Society will conduct a drawing in early July to win an 8 person brunch at the Catawba Island Club followed by a lake cruise on the CIC's luxury yacht, Gemini. The brunch and cruise themselves will take place later in the summer or early fall. Everyone with a lifetime membership, renewed membership from 2018, or new 2019 membership as of the drawing date will automatically be entered.

The prize is courtesy of the Catawba Island Club and an anonymous donor. It is being offered to attract continued growth of the Historical Society's membership roster which, after only one full year of operation, already exceeds 200 individuals, businesses and organizations.

"We thought it would be appropriate and fun to use the Gemini for an event," said Craig Koerpel, President of the Historical Society, "because it has its own noteworthy and romantic past. Its predecessor, also named Gemini, was purchased by the CIC's Stouffer family from British royalty...the Duke and Duchess of Windsor."

Historical Society Drawing for Brunch and Cruise – 2

The former King of England, Edward VIII, was the sole and only person to hold the Duke of Windsor title. It was created for him when he abdicated his throne to wed twice-divorced American socialite Wallis Simpson. Simpson became the Duchess of Windsor upon marriage and her impassioned relationship with the Duke was dubbed by many to be the "romance of the century"

The original Gemini commissioned by the Duke and Duchess was a 57' Elco yacht. Vernon Stouffer, grandfather of Jim Stouffer, Jr., purchased it from them near the end of World War II and brought it to the Great Lakes. The Stouffer's sold it in 1974. It is believed to still be in service off the coast of Massachusetts.

A 73' motor yacht built by the renowned Berger Boat Company was purchased by the Catawba Island Club in the late 1970's to give renewed life to the Gemini name and its regal past. Today it is a unique local venue for celebrations, corporate functions, and special occasions like the Historical Society's membership drive.

"The Catawba Island Historical Society very much appreciates this opportunity to offer a CIC brunch and a Gemini cruise as an incentive to build our membership," said Koerpel. "We will be providing more details about both in the near future."

Take Your Dog Boating

It's getting more common to see "Fido" on board with the family. A recent survey of boat owners in the U.S. showed that 70% of them own dogs. Not sure if your dog and your boat are a good fit? In general, a dog that is accustomed to noise, comfortable around water, well behaved, and listens to "down" and "stay" commands can make a fine boating companion. Excitable or skittish dogs may not be the best boating pals.

The first priority of a responsible dog owner should be the safety and well being of their dog. To keep your dog safe, you need to know your pet: Does he like water? Is he afraid of noise? Does he listen to you? Some dogs just don't like water and some dogs don't like to swim. If you don't know how your dog will react near water or boats, you should find out before you actually plan a trip. Visit a boat dock or launch area and see how your dog reacts to the surroundings.

As a boat operator, you are also responsible for the safety and well-being of your human passengers. Will your dog being onboard be a distraction to you? If your dog needs continual attention from you, or if any of your passengers are not comfortable with your dog, you should reconsider taking the dog onboard.

Ensure your dog exhibits proper behavior at all times while on a boat. That means staying in one place, which is especially important on smaller boats, no frantic movements, no distractive barking, etc. Be sure your pet knows where she belongs in the boat and stays there while the vessel is in motion.

If you've never had your dog on the boat, practice a "dry run" – where your boat is loaded with everything else you take on an outing. Be sure you have all the equipment on board you usually would and that it is stowed where you normally put it. Put the dog on board and determine where the safest and most comfortable place is for your pet.

Some safety professionals suggest counting your dog as a person in the boat because they can require space (taking up a seat) and can move on their own inside the boat. Definitely include their weight when calculating your boat capacity.

Make sure that you have a plan for when your dog goes overboard, whether that is voluntarily or not. If your dog is a swimmer, be sure you have practiced getting your dog back into the boat, whether you are in the water with him/her or not. Many pet flotation devices have a gripping handle incorporated into the design, which can be very helpful. (See PFDs for Dogs, Page 14)

And just as you plan for food, drink, and restroom stops, for yourself and your passengers, make sure you are prepared for your dog. Have a water bowl and snacks for your dog, and bring her leash and bags for waste cleanup. You never know when a treat can come in handy, or when you will need a plastic bag.

Life Jackets Save Lives

It is important to choose a life jacket that you will wear, that meets the needs of your boating activity, and that works for the boating environment it will be exposed to.

Knowing the facts about the different types of life jackets (also referred to as PFDs -- Personal Flotation Devices) can help you decide which is appropriate for you. ODNR strongly encourages all boaters to wear life jackets, whether or not the law requires it.

Life jackets must be:
• Coast Guard approved, in good and serviceable condition, and the appropriate size for the intended user.

• There should be a wearable life jacket (that fits!) for every person onboard the boat. The type and size of your boat determines if a throwable PFD is required. (See Required Equipment for more info)

Ohio law REQUIRES life jackets to be worn:

- while riding a personal watercraft (PWC or jet ski).
- while waterskiing or being towed on a similar device.
- by children less than 10 years of age on any vessel less than 18 feet in length.

It is particularly important to WEAR a life jacket:

- when the boater cannot swim or is a weak swimmer.
- when boating alone.
- when the water is dangerously cold (the months of October through May in Ohio).
- during rough water/waves and severe weather conditions.
- when boating at night.
- in emergency situations.
- in swift and fast current.

There are three basic kinds of flotation used in life jackets:

Inherently Buoyant (primarily foam)

- Adult, Youth, Child, and Infant sizes
- For swimmers & non-swimmers
- Wearable & throwable styles
- Some designed for water sports

Inflatable

- The most compact
- Sizes only for adults
- Only recommended for swimmers
- Wearable styles only
- Some with the best in-water performance

Hybrid (foam & inflation)

- Reliable
- Adult, Youth, and Child sizes

- For swimmers & non-swimmers
- Wearable styles only
- Some designed for water sports

Regardless of type, all life jackets must meet these U.S. Coast Guard requirements:

• Life jackets must have a "U.S. Coast Guard Approved" label with approval number listed.

• Boats less than 16 feet in length (including canoes and kayaks of any length) must be equipped with wearable PFDs for each person on board.

• Each PFD must be the appropriate size for the person who wears it. Size, weight ranges, and recommended uses are listed on the label.

• All straps, buckles, zippers and stitching on a life jacket must be intact and the fabric should be in good condition.

• Life jackets must be readily accessible to occupants of a boat. They should NOT be stored in sealed packages or in a locked or closed storage area.

Healthy Solutions

Springtime Allergies:
Nip them in the bud

If you're one of the millions of people who have springtime allergies, it also means sneezing, congestion, runny nose and other bothersome symptoms. Springtime allergies - also called hay fever and allergic rhinitis - can make you miserable. Try these simple strategies to keep springtime allergies under control.

- Stay indoors on dry windy days-the best time to go outside is after a good rain, which helps clear pollen from the air.
- If high pollen counts are forecasted, start taking allergy medications before your symptoms start.
- Avoid outdoor activities in the early morning when pollen counts are highest.
- Use the air conditioning in your house and car.
- Keep indoor air dry with a dehumidifier.
